After one false start Fugitive cut out the running from Susewind and Rattler, with Galety to the Black Rock, at which point the next and Candid last. The leader drew clear | griffin seemed "dead beat." The bearer of the coming down the hill, but was caught at the entrance to the straight by Rattler, this pair lengths to the good, but he tired rapidly in the facing for home neck and neck, three lengths in straight and Bold Heart, vigorously ridden out. front of Susewind, who had lost his place making answered most gamely to Mr. Reynell's repeated the descent. Half-way down Rattler assumed calls and only lost the verdict by a neck. Time the lead, and drawing away, won by rather over | 2 min. 41 secs. a length from Fugnive, the latter beating the The CANTON CUP, for China ponles, bond fide old dun, who came with a rare rush at last, a neck for second place. To an excellent start, Lightning made play, with Thunderbolt in close attendance, but the latter was immediately pulled back, and after settling down into their places the order was Lightning, Flatcatcher, Bold Heart, Enthusiast and Thunderbolt. At the mile post Mr. Maclean had a look round at his field, and keeping up 0.75 | high pressure led past the Stand two lengths in front of Flatcatcher, the latter just heading Enthusiast, whilst Thunderbolt had fallen half-a-dozen lengths to the rear. Flatcatcher made a strong effort to get in front rounding the bend. Enthusiast almost at the same moment coming with a rush on the extreme outside, and opposite the Bridge there was very little daylight between the leading trio, although the chesnut still led the van.
